DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed on July 9, 2008 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-6 and 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Murran, pn 1,115,328.

Murran discloses a shaving apparatus with every structural limitation of the claimed invention including cooperating cutting members as shown in Figure 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Murran, pn 1,115,328 and Hanley, pn 2,077,367, each taken separately.

Murran and Hanley each discloses a shaving apparatus with almost every structural limitation of the claimed invention but lacks the specific stroke characteristics. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify Murran and Hanley such that it is of a size and configuration that would fall within the claimed stroke characteristics to gain various well known benefits including performing cutting operations on the desired scale of workpiece and/or attaining desired cutting characteristics therefor.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed July 9, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

It is respectfully submitted that the claims remain broad, particularly the "cooperating" language. For example, in the recitation "wherein the edges of the cutting teeth cooperate", the claims are not specific as to how or why the edges cooperate, and thus the claims can be interpreted such that the edges cooperate to act as guides for the hairs to be cut. With such an interpretation, it is respectfully submitted that the prior art meets the claimed invention; for example, a space remains between and at the end portions of the teeth and the openings are never entirely closed during operation.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
